PRINCE HERMIS A VICTOR

TAKES A FAST RACE FOR WHICH ED CRUMP IS A GREAT FAVORITE.

Ladies' Day at Douglas Park a Great Success-Big Smoke Is Beaten-Jockey Garner Earns a Suspension-Track Gossip.

Louisyille, Ky., September 27.—The handicap for sprinters that held the place of honor on today's card of seven races at Bonglas Park, furnished an upset when Ed Crump, the overwhelming choice, failed to run to a place, largely because of the badly judge ride that Kederis gave him. Kederis got him into a pocket in the first quarter, which caused him to lose much ground. Then he was taken around and later in the stretch, when going well, Kederis gnided his mount on the heels of some of the leaders that nearly brought about a fall. Prince Hermis, displaying improved form and favored by the soft going, won with marked ease over Dr. Larrick with Roscoe Goose in third place.

fall. Prince Hernis, displaying improved form and favored by the soft going, won with marked ease over Dr. Larrick with Roscoe Goose in third place.

Threatening weather did not militate to any great extent against the success of ladies' day, the first held at Douglas Park under the present management. The feminine representation was extensive enough to fill the spacious plant to the crowding point. The ladies appeared to enjoy the sport and its attending incidents to the full.

Rain during the night made the track slow for the opening races, but the going improved as the afternoon progressed and the time recorded would have been regarded as fast on many other tracks. The well-balanced card afforded ample speculative opportunity and resulted in a total volume of speculation that made a high mark for the fall season here. Disappointments attended the running of several of the races and the defeat of the favorites on these occasions was costly to the talent.

H. S. Newman, W. Martin and A. L. Austin were arrivals yesterday from Torento. In the Newman consignment came the speedy Pan Zareta. In the Austin consignment were Indolence, Commonada, Milestone and two two-year-olds.

Jeckey Morys is an addition to the riding brigade here. He came from Torento.

After the finish of the second race jockey Garner claimed a foul against Lapaille for having sharply cut across in front of Liberator. The stewards did not grant it.

W. W. Lyles, who has been officiating at some of the Canadian tracks, was among the visitors this afternood.

Mack B. Eubanks got the better of the diminutive T. Henry while going to the post and galloped off three-quarters before he could be brought under control.

Trainer Peter Wimmer this afternoon added One Step to the Louisville Cup, two miles, to be run Trainer Peter Wimmer this afternoon added One Step to the Louisville Cup, two miles, to be run tomorrow.

H. C. Applegate was kept busy at the track this afternoon allotting space to horsemen at Churchill Downs, where racing will begin Wednesday.

R. E. Watkins has changed his plan for shipping Barnegat here to engage in the long-distance races. Pat Dunne, who has been an interested spectator of the racing for several days, returned to his home in Kansas City tonight.

The stewards, after the last race, announced the suspension of Jockey Garner for five days, the punishment coming as a result of that rider's rough tactics immediately after the start in the sixth race, in which he impeded all the others.

The running of the sixth race brought with it the defeat of the staunchly-backed Big Smoke by Prince Harry. The latter, in the estimation of many, should have been disqualified for his palpable interference with Kathleen and Big Smoke on the stretch turn, where he carried them out and caused Big Smoke to lose much ground. The complaint of foul, lodged against Garner, was not allowed. Louisville work-outs Sunday on a fast track were: Blackie Daw—Five-eighths in 1:023%.

W. P. FINE DIES SUDDENLY AT TORONTO.

W. P. FINE DIES SUDDENLY AT TORONTO.

W. P. FINE DIES SUBBENLY AT TORONTO.

Toronto. Ont., September 27.—With startling suddenness death came yesterday to a well-known racing man, W. P. Fine, who had been this year, as for a number of years past, racing on the Canadian circuit. He was at lunch with several friends at the Hotel Krausmann yesterday and left them to go to his lodgings to write some letters. While he was so engaged he was stricken with appoplexy and died immediately. Mr. Fine was fifty-nine years old, though much younger in appearance, a man of active habits and vigorous, absteminous, attentive to his business and deservedly popular with all racing people. His stable at this meeting consisted of Sir Blaise, Meelicka and Mordecai, and it was his intention to proceed to Maryland for the fall season of racing in that state. He leaves a wife, three daughters and a son, the latter being here with him and the others in New York.

J. O. KEENE TO BUY ENGLISH HORSES.

Lexington, Ky., September 27.—J. O. Keene, who is arranging to go to England to buy horses for several American breeders and racing devotees, left tonight for Louisville to consult with some of those who have placed orders with him.

FERNROCK'S TRENTON SELLING STAKES.

Easily Captures the Feature Race at Havre de Grace-Buckhorn a Winner,

Baltimore, Md., September 27.—The Trenton Selling Stakes figured as the feature of a good Monday card at Havre de Grace this afternoon and August Belmont's Fernrock, ridden by jockey Lilley, was returned the winner over a good band of high-class platers in an easy manner and by a good margin. Fernrock forced his opposition along at a good pace, shook off Plumose on the stretch turn, and came away at the end in an impressive manner. Sky Pilot came from far back on the inside and got up to take second place, while Plumose lasted to be third. Tem Elward, the popular choice, turned out a severe disappointment, being at no thne in the hunt and failing to display any of the speed that marked his winning race of last week.

Weather conditions changed suddenly and were like those of late fall. A crisp wind swept over the course and overcoats were a necessity.

A handicap for all ages was also down for decision and brought together a small but well balanced field. The race resulted in an exciting finish in which Buckhorn got up to win over Sam McMeekin, with Addie M. third. Johnny McTaggart, who rode Sam McMeekin, became careless when he took the lead and it was too late when he noticed Lilley bringing Buckhorn up with a rush on the outside.

Large fields marked the races for the cheaper grades of horses and the majority of the winners

Silica, racing for John Sanford, made a show of her opponents in the opening dash, which she won by eight lengths.

by eight lengths.

Joseph Murphy was an arrival from Toronto, where the meeting at Woodbine came to a close on Saturday. A large number of the followers of the sport in Canada also arrived.

J. W. Hedrick, following the running of the opening dash, claimed Scallywag from H. J. Morris for sono.

There was a considerable influx of jockeys from Toronto this morning, the majority of whom will begin riding at Laurel. J. Smyth has reported to W. R. Mizell, who has secured first call on that boy's services, while R. McDermott will ride out the remainder of the meeting as a free lance. Starter McGinity left for Toronto last night to resume his duties at the Hillcrest meeting tomorrow.
